Per Regulation 320.15, a formula determines the spending limits that currently apply to contesting these seats:

- No Candidate shall accrue more than thirty dollars ($30.00), plus six dollars ($6.00) for every one thousand (1,000) students' in their faculty beyond three thousand (3,000) in Campaign Expenses, all of which shall be paid by the UASU.
- Where the number of students in a faculty beyond three thousand (3,000) is not a multiple of one thousand (1,000), the amount of money in excess of the base amount as set out in Section 01(1a), shall be prorated and rounded to the nearest cent.
- No joke Candidate shall accrue more than two thirds (2/3) of the expenses set out in Sections 01(1a) and 01(1b).

Faculty	Candidate	Joke Candidate
Agricultural, Life and Environmental Sciences	$30.00	$20.00
Arts	$54.28	$36.18
Augustana	$30.00	$20.00
Business	$32.41	$21.60
Education	$30.00	$20.00
Engineering	$41.48	$27.66
Faculté Saint-Jean	$30.00	$20.00
Faculty of Native Studies	$30.00	$20.00

Open Studies	$30.00	$20.00
Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences	$30.00	$20.00
Science	$58.76	$39.18

If you are running for both Students' Council and GFC, you have two separate and identical spending limits. See Bylaw 320 section 15.6.

Candidates who exceed these budget limits will be disqualified. It is important to note that GST is not included in these budget limits. Candidates are responsible for keeping a separate record of applicable taxes, for which the candidate will be reimbursed (along with the non-tax expenses) at the end of the election. Excessive, unreasonable, or undocumented expenses will not be permitted. Candidates should seek advance approval from the CRO if there is any doubt about expenses.

Candidates must submit a detailed expense report, even if they spend no money, using the Expense Allowance Form available online and from the Elections Office. Remember that, to receive reimbursement, March 19 at 6PM is a hard deadline.

Candidates are not allowed to incur any expenses between the reporting deadline and the end of campaigning, unless they are included as an estimate on the initial expense report. No Candidate or side shall incur any campaign expenses within two business days of the end of voting, unless these expenses have been reported in the record that the candidate submitted to the CRO on March 19.

Universal Materials

These materials will be available to all candidates free of charge, in reasonable quantities and on a first-come, first-served basis, by contacting the CRO. They are the property of the Elections Office and are for campaign purposes only; any personal or inappropriate use of Elections Office material may result in penalties. They are not counted toward your campaign budget.

- Staples
- Tape
- Lawn signs
- Push pins
- Paper
- Markers
- Paint and Brushes

General Campaign Rules

Except for elements grounded in Bylaw, these rules may be amended by the Chief Returning Officer; any amendments will be emailed to all candidates and primary volunteers.

Pre-Campaigning

Candidates and volunteers may not engage in any campaign activities between the close of nominations and the beginning of the campaign period. During this time:

- Candidates are allowed to make social media pages with the username '[Candidate Name]' for '[Position Contested]'.
- Candidates are allowed to invite people to follow or like their page but must not post or share anything or have a profile picture.
- Candidates or campaign managers must not share any articles, posts or news regarding the UASU elections by internal or external media.

Volunteers

Volunteers, defined as anyone who assists in any campaign activity, are bound by the same rules as candidates. It is the candidate's responsibility to inform their volunteers of election rules. Candidates are responsible for the actions of their volunteers and may be subject to penalties as a result of their volunteers' conduct.

Permitted Access

Campaigning is not permitted in the following areas without the permission of the CRO:

- Any business or service operated by the Students' Union, including Room At The Top (RATT), Dewey's, Students' Union Building¹, InfoLink booths and any other Students' Union service or office space;
- Any University library, administration building, or office;
- In any classroom during a class, without permission of the instructor;
- In any residence, including all University-owned residences (including the residential areas of HUB Mall), St. Joseph's College, Augustana residences, and fraternity/sorority houses leased from the University;
- In any building or on any land not owned or operated by the University or the Students' Union, including LRT stations; and,
- Any university parking lot.

Donations

All donations to a campaign will be assessed fair market value by the CRO and accordingly deducted from a campaign's total allowable expenses. This does not include general volunteer labour and expertise held by a significant portion of the population, such as web page and poster design. If you are at all in doubt about a fair market value, it is recommended that you consult the CRO beforehand.

Collusion

Candidates are free to endorse each other, but are prohibited from acting as a volunteer for any other candidate. Candidates are also prohibited from sharing resources (i.e.: tables, posters, banners, budgets, etc.), other than universal materials, with any other candidate. Volunteers, however, may volunteer for more than one campaign.

Student Group Interaction

Candidates and sides will be prohibited from actively participating in student group or student service events during the campaign period (in their role as a candidate or side). This does not mean that you cannot attend student group events or talk to student group executives in your capacity as a student or as candidate or side member.

Candidates and campaign sides are distinct entities from student groups and should not use any influence they hold with a student group to gain an undue advantage (including but not limited to soliciting endorsements).

If a student group or service wishes to partake in a forum, or if an event runner approaches a candidate or side, they will be permitted to speak and participate so long as each side or candidate for the same race receives at least 24 hours notification of the forum or event and will be afforded an equal chance to speak at it or participate in it.

Tables

The CRO will make table bookings available on a first-come, first-served basis, prioritizing candidates who have not already had a table slot. More information will be provided at the Candidates Meeting.

Classroom Speaking

Candidates must have the instructor's permission before speaking in any classroom at the start or end of a class.

Candidates will be disqualified if found to be Zoom-bombing, Google Meets bombing or otherwise disrupting an online class.

Election Forums

This year, no official forum will be organized for the Council Election.

Any candidate who wishes to participate in forums not organized by the Elections Office must provide notification to each candidate in their race at least two business days beforehand to allow them an equal opportunity to attend.

Advertising in Campus or External Media

Ads must only run during the campaign period and must be approved by the CRO in advance. Content and graphics must be submitted to the CRO for approval at least eight days prior to the run date of the ad. Any and all ads must only run during the campaign period. Candidates will receive 50% off the regular ad prices with The Gateway. CJSR may have airtime available as paid political announcements.

Media Interviews

Candidates are free to speak to campus-based media. All contacts with external media related to the UASU election must be directed to the Elections Office and will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Elections Website Supplement

A brief biography/platform statement (maximum 250 words) and photograph (a JPEG or PNG image with a file size of at least 400kb) from each candidate can be posted on the UASU Elections website. Photos may be resized/cropped as necessary for UASU communications. Candidates should be prepared to email in their submissions within 24 hours of the Candidates Meeting. The order of appearance per each race will be in the order candidates email in their election supplement. The UASU Elections website will remain operational throughout voting days. The deadline for submitting the following information will be announced at the Candidates Meeting. If the CRO does not receive your website information by the deadline, "No information received" will be put next to your name.

Internet and Email Policy

The content of candidate websites should be provided to the CRO for review prior to being made publicly available (submit a material approval request and provide the private web address (with password) that the website can be viewed at.) Candidates are reminded that websites must not go public until the start of campaigning. "Mass emails" to unofficial groups (e.g. lists of your friends from your personal address book) are not permitted. It is permissible, however, to send mass emails to anyone already acting as your campaign volunteer.

Emails to official University and student group mailing lists (list-servs) will be considered, given that the following procedures are adhered to:

- Candidates who wish to send an email must contact the administrator of the mailing list, requesting permission to send the campaign message.
- If approval is granted, the candidate must forward a copy of this approval to the CRO, who will then send a message to all candidates in that particular race, including the candidate that initiated the request.

- Each candidate will have 24 hours to submit to the CRO a campaign message no longer than 250 words.
- The CRO will send an email containing all campaign messages to the mailing list.
- Under no circumstances are individual candidates permitted to send a campaign message directly to any mailing lists.

The use of forums, webboards, or any other similar Internet-based mediums for the purposes of campaigning is prohibited without the express permission of the CRO. Requests will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Remember that, just like on campus, candidates are responsible for any inappropriate campaigning by their volunteers on the Internet. The CRO reserves the right to revoke any candidate's right to use Internet-based mediums as a campaign tool, if it is determined that the above regulations have not been followed. Further penalties may also be assessed.

Social Media Policy

Social media may only be used for campaign purposes within the campaign period. Like physical materials, campaign materials used on social media must be approved by the CRO before being made public. Reddit and X/Twitter may not be used for campaign purposes.

Candidates must provide the CRO with a list of all account URLs for social media platforms; the CRO needs to follow or otherwise track those accounts before they can be used for campaigning.

Candidates who wish to create a Facebook group or an event page must add the CRO as a friend and appoint them as an administrator of any elections-related page.

Discussion boards and "wall posts" will be monitored by the Elections Office, and posts deemed inappropriate may be removed.

Campaign Material Rules

Material Approval

All campaign materials must be approved by the CRO via cro@su.ualberta.ca prior to use.

- Identical campaign material (i.e. posters with different orientations, identical graphic designs) do not need to be approved every single time.
- Materials will be approved on a first-come, first-served basis with a maximum 24-hour turn-around time whenever possible.

Material Removal

All physical campaign materials on-campus must be removed by the posted deadline. Candidates and volunteers will meet on the last voting day to coordinate poster removal.

The CRO will announce the time and location of a mass poster removal at the Candidates Meeting. However, responsibility for removal of a candidate's materials ultimately lies with the candidate.

Identification of Printed Materials

All printed campaign materials must be printed at SUBprint and include "Printed at SUBprint" on it. All posters must also include the supplied Elections Office online voting. It is the responsibility of each candidate to ensure that this identification is present on the material before it is sent to the printer. Failure to include proper identification may result in the removal of these campaign materials.

Printing at SUBprint

All printing and photocopying must be done at SUBprint, located on the lower level of SUB. The process for using SUBprint is:

- Go to SUBprint and have them fill out an "Internal/Walk-up" order form. Explain to the Print Centre staff what you would like printed, and have them fill out the form with the specifics.
- Have the printed material approved by the CRO, who must sign the order form.
- Have your material printed.

Materials printed at SUBprint are charged to the Elections Office and are not eligible for reimbursement, but still count toward your budget. If SUBprint is not available to you, contact the CRO.

Videos

Please adhere to the following steps for campaign video approval:

- Send the final video script to the CRO for approval.
- Once you have received approval from the CRO, proceed with the filming of your video.
- Video editing will be considered to have a fair market value of zero. However, value may be assessed against your campaign budget if a professional editing service is hired. Please consult the CRO if you have any questions.
- Upon completing the video, please submit to the CRO in its finished form for final approval.

Candidates are permitted to post videos on YouTube, your campaign website, Instagram, TikTok, or on your Facebook page. Please inform the CRO of any other platform you might wish to use; these will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, and all candidates or sides will be informed of the option to use the same platform.

Leaflets and Handouts

All leaflets and handouts must include a notice identifying the candidate and the race(s) for which they are running.

All leaflet and handout designs must be approved by the CRO before printing.

Leaflets and handouts are primarily for one-on-one distribution to individuals. Leaving stacks of leaflets or handouts at reception desks, business counters, or public spaces is not permitted. Pinning a group of leaflets or handouts to a bulletin board is not permitted.

Schedule of Penalties

The overriding priority of the Elections Office is to produce a fair and legitimate election that respects the basic dignity of all involved. While the Bylaws require disqualification in several situations, they also give the Chief Returning Officer significant latitude to enforce penalties as appropriate in other situations, including:

- a fine to be counted against the candidate's campaign expense limit.
- the confiscation or destruction of campaign materials; and
- limits, restrictions, and prohibitions on any type of Campaign activities for any period of time up to the commencement of voting.

Please see Bylaw 320, section 17 for more information. Per Bylaw 140, CRO penalties may be appealed to the DIE Board within 12 working hours of the posting of the CRO's ruling.

Automatic Disqualification

- Missing the Candidates Meeting without obtaining an exemption or sending a pre-authorized proxy, as described in Regulation 320.08.
- Exceeding budget limits or falsifying expenses, as described in Regulation 320.15. Note that fines can push candidates over a budget limit, resulting in disqualification.
- Zoom-bombing or otherwise disrupting an online class.
- Ceasing to be a registered University of Alberta undergraduate student for the upcoming academic year in question, as required by Bylaw 110.
- In the CRO's judgment, a contravention of election rules that is malicious or substantially prejudicial to another candidate, as described in Bylaw 320.

Discrimination and harassment are not tolerated.

- Tampering with ballots and election procedures, as described in Bylaw 320.

Potential Disqualification

- Any contravention of election rules that cannot be counterbalanced by a lesser penalty.
- Reports of students feeling their voting was coerced/pressured.
- Any situation that, in the CRO's judgment, wilfully undermines the integrity of the election and the free exercise of voting rights.

Lesser Penalties

Note that the lists of fines and penalties on the following page are not exhaustive and are subject to change. Any changes will be communicated to all candidates by email. Note also that, under Bylaw 320, the CRO has authority to levy fines only against expense limits. For example, for a $25 fine, a candidate with a $30 limit now has a limit (i.e. maximum reimbursable expenses) of $5. There is no circumstance where the UASU will send a candidate a bill for election fines.

Form 3: List of Nominators

Per Regulation 320.07: Nomination Procedure, if you are contesting a Students' Council and/or GFC position, you must get 20-50 signatures from University of Alberta undergraduate students who belong to your home faculty. The final submission file should be equivalent to the table on the following pages (i.e. collect the same information). For a digital form, the CRO considers name plus student ID number as equivalent to a signature, so the Signature field can be omitted.
