COMMITTEE BUSINESS

2015-09/3a

GFC Nominations. one person applied, from sciences. Fahim's message: there's only 1 GFC meeting left in march, so this person will only attend one meeting. Kevin - should we let her in, even though it's only for 1 meeting? Levi - we should let her in, even for one meeting. It gives her a taste of what GFC is like and might get her to want to run in the next election. Jason - when we starting Nominating Committee recommend people to council, did we specify when the cut-off date is? Otherwise, there's no reason not to let her in. Kevin - we didn't set a date. For future NomCom years he will make sure we appoint people as soon as the by-elections are over. Sandy - so we can't carry this application to next year's cycle? Kevin - no, she either runs again or applies. Sandy - there isn't much value in having her on for just one meeting. Victoria - There's value in Sciences having additional representation. Sandy - does she have to go as a GFC member? She could still attend the meeting as a spectator. Levi - you can't participate if you're a spectator and it doesn't allow for proxies. Kevin - I don't see a reason to deny her. Jason - can we get someone on GFC to give her a crash course on how it works? Kevin - he will ask a science GFC member for them to mentor her. Levi - they also have caucus meetings, and she can get in on that. We're all in favour of sending the decision to council.
