RE: Students' Council Report (for March 26th, 2013 Council Meeting)

Hello Council!

Hope all is well in Edmonton! Colten and I have been super busy in Vancouver for the Canadian Alliance of Student Association's (CASA) Annual General Meeting (AGM). It's been one heck of a meeting so far (I'll explain more in this report). I'll keep this report relatively brief:

A. CASA AGM - Conference Report There are four parts to CASA's AGM:

- (1.) Board Meeting (Tue, Mar 19) As a Director-At-Large, I attended CASA's Board Meeting. At the meeting we went through all of the presentations, motions, policies, and agendas for the AGM. Furthermore, we made some decisions on various governing aspects of CASA (i.e. how CASA's advocacy priorities will be selected by next year's membership).
- (2.) Day #1 (Wed, Mar 20) On this day the membership got together and went through multiple presentations. We had a "Year-In-Review" presentation where the outgoing-National Director presents to the membership (obviously) a review of the year in terms of politics and the years to come. After that, the membership received a presentation on how CASA has been succeeding in regards to its Strategic Plan (the first of its kind for CASA). A couple hours after, CASA's Budget was approved and a policy presentation on Open Access.
- (3.) Day #2 (Thurs, Mar 21) Today the membership had a comprehensive review of the proposed policy amendments and creations. This consisted of an in-depth analysis of over 17 policies. I proposed edits to a policy on international graduate students and permanent residency (i.e. the Federal Skilled Worker Program should recognize internships and co-op opportunities that international university students have when applying for a permanent residency which affects both undergraduate and graduate students).
- (4.) Closing Plenary (Fri, Mar 22) Tomorrow, the membership will actually vote on the proposed policy amendments and proposals and a slew of other things. One of the interesting motions is the creation of a committee that will focus on polytechnic schools. Furthermore, we're making some edits to CASA's bylaws.

Something else to add to my CASA conference report is my federal student work programs policy proposal. One of my goals this year is to make sure student work programs is an issue for the UASU and its provincial and federal advocacy organizations. With the suspension of the Alberta Summer Temporary Employment Program (STEP) in the provincial government's 2013 budget, I've been focusing a lot more of my time on the creation of a UASU and CAUS policy so that we can respond to this. (In spite of CAUS advocating for STEP to be reestablished during our 2013 Advocacy Week.) With this and the fact that I had to go on a leave of absence due to my Presidential Campaign, I was unfortunately unable to have the Policy committee go approve a federal student work programs. However, with that being said, this isn't a major stumbling block since CASA wouldn't be able to advocate on this policy until its National Transition in May. And by then, we will have a policy done and CASA would be able to advocate on it. Overall, we're still on a great path and I'm glad to say that we've put this on the radar both provincially and federally.

B. Provincial Budget Cuts 2013

A lot of work has been put in to responding to this. Here are a couple of things to note:

- (1.) The SU will be having a townhall on Tue, Mar 26th at noon at SUBstage about the budget cuts. There we want to not only communicate to students on how the SU will be reacting to these cuts and what these cuts means to students, but we will also want to hear back from students on how they think we should respond and address any thoughts or concerns they may have.
- (2.) Furthermore, the SU has created a website to communicate to students and faculty/department associations on these budget cuts. Check out our new swanky and detailed website: www.studentonbudget.ca
- (3.) The SU, the academic and non-academic association at the U of A, the Graduate Students' Association (GSA), and the association representing post-doctoral students have met to discuss about the cuts. We agreed on wanting to form a coalition so that we can strategically respond to the cuts. One of the things I heavily pushed for was for all of us to develop a plan on how the University should address these cuts. This will be an extremely challenging and interesting process, but I believe that it's important that, as a group, we can show everyone that we can work together to figure out what's the best way for these budget cuts to take place. We've also agreed to the idea of creating a joint letter to the media about these cuts. I'll keep you posted on this front.
- (4.) The Council of Alberta University Students (CAUS) and the Confederation of Academic Faculty Associations (CAFA) (the provincial advocacy group for academic associations at the U of A, U of C, and U of L) have agreed to not only releasing a jointly-signed letter on these cuts but to also possibly having a press release. I'll keep you posted on this, as well.
- (5.) Another interesting thing has been how other students have been mobilizing on campus, as well! The Coalition for Action on Post-Secondary Education (CAPSE) has been mobilizing excellently in the past two weeks. Last week they had a great General Assembly where (I'd estimate) over 300 people were there. There I proposed a structural idea for CAPSE called GAS General Assembly, Ambassadors, and Solidarity Network. Furthermore, there was a huge protest and march to the Legislative Assembly from campus where (Ryan Bromsgrove - Editor-in-Chief for the Gateway) counted approximately 525 people marching. (Which didn't include the approximately the 50-75 people waiting for the rally at the Leg). There were excellent speeches made by a bunch of folks. Big shout outs to Brent Kelly for being a strong force behind all of this and everyone else, as well. (Too many to list.) To find out more information about CAPSE check out www.capse.ca.

Anyways, that's it for now Council. See you next week and drive safe! (I heard there was an absurd snow storm today in YEG, YIKES!)

Cheers, Petros Kusmu Vice President External 2012-2013

2012/2013 Report to Council

March 22nd, 2013 Vice President (Student Life)

Prepared by: Saadiq Sumar, Vice President (Student Life)

To: Students' Council 2012/13

Hey Everyone!

It's been quite a while since I last sent council a report. The last two weeks have been steadily getting busier, as I am now working to complete initiatives and transition the incoming VPSL, William Lau. He has started to attend some meetings with me, but is also still busy with work that he has been doing this year now coming to fruition.

Programming

Campus Musical

The Campus Musical was absolutely phenomenal. I had a chance to sneak into the last night of the show and watch the whole show. I have also heard from a number of students that they thoroughly enjoyed the show. The Director and Choreographer are now working on a report of the musical and I will be meeting with them and with William to discuss whether or not this is a programming initiative that will continue in the years to come.

Additionally, we are still working through expenses for the show and I am hoping that we can get council an update by the next meeting of Students' Council.

Visiting Lectureship on Human Rights

If you haven't already heard, the Visiting Lectureship on Human Rights will be held next Wednesday at 7:30PM in CCIS 1-430. The Speaker is Leslea Newman, an award-winning author, poet, and LGBTQ activist. The topic of the lecture is "It Takes a Village to Raise an Activist." I encourage all of you to attend. For more information, see www.globaled.ualberta.ca/en/VisitingLectureshipinHumanRights.aspx

University Programming

Two fantastic week-long programs put on by several student groups and University units: Arts Week and Pride Week. Both of these programs wrap-up today. For more info on Arts Week, see https://www.facebook.com/events/316413991813801/?fref=ts. Pride Week wraps up today with the Day of Silence. I will be speaking later today at the Breaking of the Silence Event in the Alumni Room starting at 3PM.

Additionally, next week is Health Week. William and the Student Health Committee have been working very hard on this all year, and this is one of the many displays of students and student groups coming together to organize a huge campus wide event. For more information on Health Week, see https://www.facebook.com/events/217202991753966/?fref=ts.

For more information on Health Week, See

Comedy Night

Nick Reynoldson and a couple of other comedians made a pit stop at Dinwoodie Lounge for the last Comedy Night of the year. Nick was hilarious and the show was fantastic. I am excited to see what comedians come to Dinwoodie Lounge next year.

Services

Director Interviews

Interviews started earlier this week for various SU Services Director positions. I will announce the new Directors when offers go out and they are accepted. The SU is still looking for various services positions. Visit www.jobkin.ca for more details.

Microwaves

As some of you may have heard, I have been working on a map of all the different microwaves on campus. Please take a look and let me know if there are additional locations that need microwaves. This will form the basis for an allocation from the SU Executive. http://goog.gl/maps/yicyV

Farmer's Market

There are only two Farmer's Markets left this year. March 28th and April 11th. Be sure to spread the word and bring reusable bags for the last two of the year!

Advocacy

Response to University Policy Documents

On the advocacy side, I have been working on a couple of responses to some university policy proposals. If anyone has feedback from their constituents on the proposed alcohol policy changes, please pass that along to me.

Other

SURO

The outgoing and incoming SU Executives met with several members from the Registrar's Office to get introductions out of the way and to share updates from both sides.

If you have any other questions, please ask during council, stop by the office in SUB, or send me an email at vp.studentlife@su.ualberta.ca.
