“To lead this country, you need to love this country” – just one of the many comments made during tonight’s Leaders Debate.

Council, I bring you greetings post-debate induced adrenaline rush. Not only did I enjoy seeing Green Party Leader Elizabeth slay the stage with her competence, I am also enjoying the Republican Party candidates spew forth very ... interesting thoughts.

Alas, I present to you my on-goings for the last two weeks. Read on, for I shall bring forth news.

Board of Governors

As I mentioned during the last Council meeting, we had a special Board meeting on July 29th (outside of the regular schedule) to discuss the consequences of Bill 3. As a recap, the Minister essentially ordered all institutions to roll back the approved tuition increases for 2015/16 so that they match 2014/15 levels. This included rolling back the market modifier increases as well. For two years (if they stick to their plan), tuition will be frozen at those levels. However, the motions were made such that the tuition rollback does not apply to international students. International students will pay more for their education in 2015/16 than they did in 2014/15. According to both the government and the administration, this move remains within the confines of the Tuition & Fees Regulation.

The Gateway

That same evening, our team spent some time with the proprietors of our campus news – the Gateway! We toured each other’s offices, discussed our various roles, and then went out for dinner. This is a great way to build upon our relationship, especially with new faces on both sides.

CAUS: Orientation to Government + Research

We were invited to the traditional “orientation to government” on August 4th. It’s a day-long event for student leaders from across the province that includes presentations on the department of Advanced Education as well as a Q&A session with the Minister. Minister Sigurdson answered some of our questions yet there is still a lot of uncertainty and a “wait and see” approach. CAUS pushed, and will continue to push, to be involved in collaborative conversations regarding the future of post-secondary policy in this province.

Speaking of policy, we are currently working on a research paper regarding student financial aid. I am very excited to see where this goes, as I think SFA is in need of major reform.

SUB

As you may have noticed, the SUB renovations to the lower level/foyer area are basically done! The space looks absolutely amazing and I implore you all to go and take a look. We hosted a staff party on Friday to thank everyone for putting up with the renovations and to kick-start the long weekend. We will also be hosting a “re-opening” party of sorts on Friday, September 4th. Expect to receive your invitations soon!

Looking Ahead

On Sunday, VP Hanwell and I will leave for Ottawa to join our peers for the CASA Get Out the Vote Conference. As the name suggests, this conference is integral to planning our GOTV effort across the nation. We are counting on leaders like you to help make this a success – stay tuned for the campaign rollout at U of A!

Right after the CASA conference, we are flying straight to Vancouver to join the rest of the Executive Team at the Students’ Union Development Summit (SUDS). SUDS brings together student representatives from across Canada to share ideas and best practices. It’ll be a great time, though a very intense week!

When I get back, August will be in full swing and we’ll be nose-diving right into back-to-school chaos (which I love).

Have a great weekend, and send me any questions you have prior to Tuesday!

Ciao,

Re: Report to Council (for August 11, 2015 meeting)

Introduction

Hey Council,

Hopefully you all are getting more excited for the start of the school as I know I definitely am. I am very excited to see students on campus again and start the Get Out the Vote campaign! In case you haven't heard, the writ was dropped for the federal election and we are now in the election period, more on that below.

Municipal

Nothing much at the city level. In the next few days I will be asking Ben Henderson, the councilor for the U of A, as well as the Mayor for letters of support for BTR. These will hopefully help in our application for grants and sponsorship.

Provincial

A week and a bit ago I met with my MP, James Rajotte, and right beside his office is the office of the MLA for that riding Dr. Bob Turner. Dr. Turner and I talked briefly about the Board of Governors and how appointments are made but he had limited time as I just stopped by on a whim so we decided to set up another more formal meeting. I think Dr. Turner can be a great ally for us as he previously taught at the U of A and is interested in having regular meetings.

In terms of lobby meetings in Edmonton, my counterpart at the Students' Association of MacEwan University and I have started to split up all capital region MLAs (all those MLAs in and around Edmonton) to try and get meetings with everyone of them collectively.

As well, I went down to Calgary for a day to talk with the Alberta Students Executive Council, the other provincial student organization. ASEC is made up of students from colleges, polytechnics, and smaller post-secondary schools in Alberta. We met to discuss some of the priorities that they have as well as the priorities that CAUS has to see if we could find areas that we agree on. We also talked about the questions we would like to ask the Minister for our Orientation to Government.

The Orientation to Government was held on the 4th and members from ASEC, CAUS and the graduate students of Alberta all come together with the government to learn more about the priorities of the government, some of their plans for the future, and where Student Associations fit into the government. The sessions were good, at the start of the day we talked about how government works, as well as tuition and student financial aid. We then had lunch and a Q&A with the Minister, followed by breakout sessions. I attended the sessions on Entrepreneurship as well as internationalization which were both great. The final session was us talking to the government about how we would like to be consulted for the upcoming review of the post-secondary sector.

Federal

I'm sorry I'm not currently here at council but President Khinda and I are currently at a CASA GOTV conference in Ottawa. We are there with our DRPA, Jon and our Campus Coordinator, Ranya. While you are at this meeting we will probably be relaxing after a long day of learning about voter outreach software.

So there is an election...right meow. If you aren't excited about that I don't know who you are. Regardless, this means that we are working on GOTV stuff quite constantly right now. Prepping the campaign for the U of A will be a lot of work, especially given the fact that we have so much potential for the campaign. I will keep you all posted on the campaign but if you would like to volunteer please fill out the following form!

<http://goo.gl/forms/E3gjskpwha>

As I am also the Director of Advocacy for CASA, the GOTV campaign has been even more work on a national level. I had a few calls regarding our media strategy, a video we will be creating, and our National Advocacy Team.

I had my first meeting with an MP, James Rajotte. He is my MP and I requested a meeting to talk about CASA and the best way to be a good advocate for students to MPs. Unfortunately he is not running in the election so building a relationship with him as an MP has a very close expiration date but I was able to get really candid feedback on CASA as well as ways to connect with MPs.

Internal Students' Union

We had a great time on the Friday before the long weekend at a staff barbeque in the new SUB patio. It was great to finally give the space a test run and it was really nice. The staff seems to really enjoy the space and I'm sure that students will as well, especially for events.

Kind of internal-related – I met with the VP External Affairs from the Students' Society of McGill University. She sent me an email as she was visiting family from Sherwood Park and wanted to get together to meet. It was really cool to show her around 2-900 and to compare our Student Associations as well as our student bodies. There is definitely a difference between Quebec schools and ours, and it was just great to talk about our own issues and how we work.

It was a good week and like I said, I'm really looking forward to the start of the school year, and hopefully you are too. I will be gone to the Students Union Development Summit (SUDS) with the rest of the executive until the 17th, but will see you all when we get back!

Cordially yours,

Dylan

Re: VPA Report 7

---

Dear Council,

I can't believe it's already August, and we're all over 25% done our terms so far. I certainly would benefit from an extended summer to continue to set up plans for a what's panning out to be a big year between a new government, board chair, University President and Provost. Planning for an SU submission to the University's Academic Plan has been exciting, as well as supporting Faculty Associations in their endeavors for the year - it seems like we're starting to hit a busy peak!

Here is a report on my duties to date:

1. SU Submission to the University's Academic Plan

I've mainly been working with our University Governance and Advocacy Advisor on this front, doing research on what the goals from the SU's end for students have been over the past few years, as well as the content of the previous Academic Plan submissions from the SU. My next steps on this will be prioritizing our asks into themes as well as along importance to narrow the list down slightly, before bringing it to Exec for feedback on what we have ready so far.

2. Open Educational Resources & Be Booksmart

For Be Booksmart, one of the professors in Biological Science was kind enough to follow up from the letter I sent to all instructors encouraging them to look at alternative delivery of course materials. Through a collaboration between two instructors, a graduate student, an undergraduate student and funding from the Centre for Teaching and Learning, the professor was able to convert an entire course's textbook, regularly priced at $140, into an open educational resource (OER), or in layman's terms, a PDF available for public distribution. The OER was designed for students taking the course, and each chapter in the textbook corresponds to an individual lecture the instructors would give to the class each day.

It was amazing to hear how the pieces worked together for the two instructors developing this OER, which is the first one that I've heard of being used on our campus. I'm hopeful that more instructors on campus will considering creating new OERs or revising current OERs in order deliver both more customized content to students, making lectures easier to digest for students and deliver for instructors, as well as being highly more affordable for students. There's definitely a lot of work that needs to go into creating an OER, but once in place they carry a lot of pros for students and instructors.

On a quieter note, Be Booksmart ads have gone live on SUTV! Posters will go up across campus during the last week of August.

3. University Standing Committees

No University standing committees met over the past ~~two four six eight~~ ten weeks. I'll make up for the low committee time this summer by the end of the year, I promise.

4. General Faculties Council

GFC Facilities Development Committee met two weeks ago, and the discussion was centered around the Library's new space being developed close to the Saville Centre for storage and access to academic materials. There will be minor student space in this area, as well as sections for researchers to use materials for reading, which is quite exciting. The building is still in the planning stage, so it won't be ready for a while, but I've been pretty content with the consultative route this is currently taking.

5. Council of Faculty Associations (Senior Board, Science, Member Services Working Group)

COFA Senior Board went really well two weeks ago, with FAs receiving an update around Orientation plans for this year's Week of Welcome, as well the Healthy Campus Unit's Unwind Your Mind program. Many FAs were pretty receptive towards either integrating their programming into what has been outlined already by Unwind Your Mind, or applying for a grant with UYM to run currently offered services within their spaces for students. I'm really glad to see COFA engagement come in a form that supports student mental health, and am going to see if there's any other goals for the entire campus that we can work together on.

Last week I also gave a few presentations to the Interdepartmental Science Students' Society around Robert's Rules of Order, effective chairing practices, the achievements and successes an FA can grow from, as well as the general direction FAs tend to head in. It was really nice to visit the team at ISSS and see how their year is coming along, not just for the FA Executives I usually speak with, but also with their Councillors who play an important role for the organization.

Finally, we've had to reschedule our COFA MSWG meeting for next week as not enough FAs were able to attend a meeting this week. Falls in line with the sentiments of FA leaders either having workloads build up or time scheduled for vacation around now that I've gathered from members of FAs.

6. Academic Relations Group

While I don't have a full roster for the Academic Relations Group at the moment, we had our introductory group meeting after I interviewed and accepted the candidates who applied to serve. We covered our expectations for the group, and having a diverse set of members for ARG was a priority, both with respect to Faculty and student status.

Some topics ARG wanted to address this year included quality instruction, connecting Faculty Associations with their constituents, discussing the overlap between academics, student life and residences, representation for international students, and transparency in grading and assessment for students. The topics we will cover this year will depend on who I'm able to get from the University's end to solicit feedback on one of these topics, as well as what other issues arise throughout the year based on how the term goes. I'm really looking forward to working with ARG this year to making progress on a select few of these issues.

Thanks so much for your time, and looking forward to the next report.

All the best,
Fahim Rahman

Hello Council!

I have actually been on vacation for most of the last two weeks, so I don't have a lot to update you on.

Bike Library 10th Anniversary BBQ

Sustain SU's Bike Library program had its 10th birthday last week, and hosted a lovely BBQ and celebration of their growth over the last decade! They got coverage from the Edmonton Journal and CBC, and had over 200 people show up for food, music, bike tune-ups, and fun! If you're ever looking to rent a bike or learn more about cycling in the city, check them out on the first floor of SAB!

Media: <http://www.edmontonjournal.com/news/edmonton/Bicycle+celebration/11252724/story.html>

Gateway Repayment Plan

The Students' Union has entered into a repayment plan with the Gateway. They owe us a substantial amount of money as a result of us doing their payroll over the past year without reimbursement, but their new Executive Director is a rock star, and we've worked out a great deal that will have both accounts squared away by the end of our fiscal year on April 30, 2016.

Ungendered Spaces

I am super excited to continue working on creating alternatives to gendered spaces for students and community members who may not feel comfortable with the male-female binary. I have a meeting with Councillor Andrew Knack to talk about washroom spaces in a few weeks, and am still working with the University Architect to push for changing signage on existing ungendered washrooms

On a Personal Note

My vacation is going well ☺

Thanks for reading through, and have a wonderful week!

Re: Vice President Student Life Council Report

Hi Council,

I am away once again! I apologize for missing council, I will be sure to bring back some treats for our next meetings once I'm back.

Advocacy

Our wonderful Marketing & Communications team finally put together some handout material for current and prospective student residents on campus! We also found a permanent home for the Residents Feedback Form on our SU website. 1000 cards are being printed and will be distributed to Residence Association executives in our next Residence Hall Association meeting. I have attached an image of the cards incase some of you are wondering how they look like.

LIVING IN RESIDENCE
HAVING A PROBLEM ?

WE WANT TO HEAR ABOUT IT.

PLEASE VISIT SU.UALBERTA.CA/RESFEEDBACK
AND COMPLETE OUR FEEDBACK FORM.

SU.UALBERTA.CA/RESIDENCEFEEDBACK

This form is jointly offered by your Residence Association and your Students' Union. Completing this form enables us to advocate on your behalf to ensure that you are receiving a quality experience during time at U of A residences.

Health and Services

I finally had the opportunity to catch up with Jason Murray, Psychologist at the Counselling and Clinical Services to talk about the Positive U campaign and the Mental Health Packages for faculty members. We haven't connected since March 2015, it was good to finally sit down and talk about our plans moving forward with the project. There were some great updates! The packages are approved and ready to be distributed in late August. One goal down! Woohoo! Aside from that, we will also be installing a small pop-up library in the new lower-level SUB quiet room (or the nap room) that contains self-care books for students to read for leisure. The content the books have been approved by executive, and we are all super excited to see how this will play out.

I had a meeting with Alisa from Safewalk this past week to chat about coordinating drop-in Self Defense Programs for campus members. This was an idea that came out of the VPSL discussions from our CAUS round-table last week. It was interesting to know that Safewalk has been doing these trainings for several of years now and they were super open to the idea of making their program available to students and staff on campus. They initially established the program in collaboration with the Protective Services and Edmonton Police Services. Their sessions run twice a year (fall and winter term), and they can either run from 3 hours or the full day (9am-5pm). These drop-in sessions will be completely free of charge. They usually tie their sessions to a charity of choice, and participants can bring in a small donation. I am super excited about the idea, but I will still have to confirm some logistics before we get moving.

Events

I spent the entire week writing grants and sponsorship requests for Break The Record. We had an executive meeting this week and talked a little bit about what our individual roles are in terms of fundraising for the event. In order to host Break The Record this year, we will need to have $50,000 fundraised by the end of August. The deadline is getting kind of tight so it's making me kind of nervous, but I'm sure we will be able to pull through!

The SU executives met with the new and old Gateway crew this past week to talk about goals and understand each other's operations. It was a great evening spent touring both of our offices, and having some good conversations over food at Devaney's. I am definitely looking forward to our interactions with Gateway this upcoming year. They were such a lovely bunch!

We hosted our very first Staff BBQ at the new SUB patio this past Friday! It was a blast! It was super exciting to see everyone come out before the long weekend. The new furnitures we got for the patio look super colorful and summery. All in all, it was a great week.
